

IRASBURG

A new boiler is being installed in the sawmill.

Mrs. E. F. Wells has been on the sick list the past week.

Mrs. Marshall Freehart visited her sister in Barton last week.

Fred McGoff of Portland, Me., visited his mother last week.

Mrs. H. B. Chamberlin is passing the week with her sister in Brandon.

Frank Roberts of Bethlehem, N. H., visited relatives in town over Sunday.

Miss Myrtle Alexander of West Burke visited her brother, Maynard, last week.

Miss Marion Sears spent Thursday and Friday with her aunt in St. Johnsbury.

The Ladies' Aid society will serve their annual harvest dinner Thursday in the town hall at noon.

Pearle Griggs of St. Johnsbury was a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Corley Sunday.

Mrs. Nellie Mitchell has gone to Coventry to assist in the family of George Benware for a time.

Something Just A Little Better

Maxwell House Coffee . . . 45c
Try one pound and if you don't say it is worth the price we want the empty can and you get your 45c.

Rival Brand Rolled Oats . . . 35c
A useful aluminum dish in each package. We have a list of these dishes.

Onions 5c lb., 45c pk., $1.70 bu.
3 pkgs. Kellogg's Corn Flakes . . . 25c

2 pkgs. Shredded Wheat Biscuit . . . 25c
Boiled Cider, per bottle . . . 40c
5 cakes Buttermilk and Borax Soap . . . 25c

The clock is still ticking but it can't much longer because it has been wound for the last time. You are not taking any chances because you get your moneys worth in 4 eleven oz. cakes of Swifts Quick Naptha Soap which is highly recommended for 25c. A guess with every four cakes.

Yours to call anytime

The Mosher-Marsh Co.

Barton, Vermont

NEW FALL OVERCOATS

Extra Values Without Extra Charges

The style is there, the quality is there and the price is just what you expect to pay for a good overcoat.

$18.50 to $30.00

Men's Dept.

Young Men's Suits in New Fall Models . . .
Price $16.50 to $27.50

Men's New Fall Caps . . .
Price $1 to $2

Men's All-Wool Sweaters . . .
$6.00 to $9.50

Men's Gray Cotton Sweaters . . .
Price $1.00

Men's Medium Weight Union Suits . . .
Price $1.25

Men's Outing Flannel Shirts . . .
95c

Men's All Wool Socks in gray and natural color . . .
45c to 75c

Ladies' Dept.

Received another shipment of Poiret Twill and Canton Crepe Dresses in the newest styles for Autumn and Winter Wear, the latest drapes and the new sleeve effects, size 18 to 46. . .
Price $15 to $30

Velour Coats with large fur collars, mixture coats in sport models, half or full lined, a big variety to choose from . . .
Price $15 to $35

Ladies' Suits, tailored models, in navy tricot, size 36 to 44 . . .
Price $22 to $32

Children's Beaver Hat in brown, black, castor

Bradford Clothes Shop

The Economy Store

Barton, Vermont

Dress Better This Fall--

It Pays

In business, in social life, good clothes count for a great deal. You'll find them here—Hart Schaffner & Marx and Peavy Clothes in the latest fall styles.

Hart Schaffner & Marx

Men's and Young Men's Suits $35.00 to $40.00

Golf Suits $42.50

Peavy

Men's and Young Men's Suits $26 to $35, sizes to 48

Golf Suits $35.00 to $42.50

Overcoats $27.50 to $40.00, exceptional qualities

Other Makes

Suits $17.50 and up

Overcoats $20.00

Harned & Stevens

BARTON,

VERMONT

Hart Schaffner & Marx Clothes

Mrs. Alberta Armstrong of Coventry spent the past week with her daughter, Mrs. Percy Newton.

George Messier and O. W. Metcalf spent a few days with Mr. Messier's aged mother in Franklin last week.

Charles Boright enjoyed a camping trip through the White mountains with school friends from Derby academy from Friday until Monday.

Dr. and Mrs. P. C. Templeton were in St. Johnsbury Friday night to attend the senior reception at the academy and their daughter, Elizabeth, returned home with them for the week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. Mayland Clough and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Cole, of North Troy and Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Clough and daughter, Charlene, took a trip through the White mountains Saturday.

Mrs. Edyth Shorey, who has spent the summer with Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Colton, left Friday for Holyoke, Mass., where she will stay with her sister, Olive, until November when they will go to Florida for the winter.

CRAFTSBURY

Rev. and Mrs. O. B. Wells are entertaining friends from Rochester.

Mrs. Robbins and Mrs. Morse whose illness has been mentioned, are both improving.

Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Copeland moved Saturday to Sheffield where they expect to reside.

Mrs. Nathan Gage and two children from Waterbury are guests of Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Gage.

H. W. McClary returned from Hanover, N. H., where he was called by the death of his brother.

Much sympathy is expressed for Miss Grace Fairbanks, a former teacher, in the death of her mother.

Mrs. Ella Ellis, who has been spending a little time with Mrs. Lydia Robbins left Monday for her home in Manchester.

Mr. and Mrs. Danahue and family moved Saturday from Hardwick into the tenement vacated by the Copeland family and took possession of the blacksmith shop.

Dr. and Mrs. McKinley accompanied by their mother, Sunday from Haverhill, N. H., to attend church and called upon their uncle, N. L. Sawyer and other friends.

EAST CRAFTSBURY

O. H. Anderson is spending this week with relatives in Brattleboro.

Charles and Miss Annie Richardson are enjoying an auto trip to New York.

Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Day of Whitefield, N. H., have been recent visitors at Bert Colburn's.

The W. M. S. will hold their monthly meeting and will serve a harvest dinner on Thursday of this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Merrill with friends from Laconia, N. H., have been visiting at M. Z. Thompson's.

The many friends of James Anderson are sorry to learn that he is failing, being now confined to his bed.

Mr. and Mrs. Lindsay Wilson of Sherbrooke, are visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Amos Macomber.

Misses Mary and Myrtle Bailey entertained Miss Jean Simpson and the trustees of the library at their home on Wednesday evening.

Bernice Anderson, who has been spending some time with her grandmother, Mrs. Sarah Anderson, and her sister, Mrs. Ethan Cutler, of Albany, has returned to her home in Brattleboro.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Anderson are the happy parents of a little daughter, Janet Mary, born on Saturday, September 30. Mrs. Anderson and child are being cared for at the Hardwick hospital.

John Clark returned to his home on Thursday, after spending a week with cousins in Montreal and Grimsby, Ontario. He also spent a day at Niagara Falls. He had a very enjoyable trip and reports Ontario as a great fruit country.

ALBANY

Elmer George is quite ill with pneumonia.

Lucile Anderson has a new Ford coupe.

Mr. Clegg has moved into F. W. Tenney's house.

Mrs. DeZottelle is visiting her sister in Brattleboro.

Morris Nelson has gone to Lowell, Mass., to work for his uncle.

Mr. and Mrs. Ethan Cutler are visiting her parents in Brattleboro.

Mrs. Mae Annis is nursing in the home of Mr. Farman in Irasburg.

Rev. and Mrs. Percy Newton visited at Rev. Vasey's in Evansville last week.

Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Darling spent a few days last week in Vergennes and Burlington.

Marselle Martin has moved from J. D. Kelley's farm to his house in the village.

Alfred Bimson has moved from the village to J. D. Kelley's farm on the River road.

Mrs. Waldo Potter was recently called to Boston by the illness of her mother, Mrs. Cobb.

Frank Bailey has moved from Craftsbury to his house on Water street, vacated by Alfred Bimson.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Bashaw have been spending several days with friends in Richmond.

Stephen Newton and family from Hyde Park spent the week-end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Newton.

Charlie Bridges from Hardwick has returned to work for E. B. Searles, Mrs. Bridges working at Waldo Potter's.

Mrs. Myrtle Dunn and daughter from Natick, Mass., visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. N. A. Cutler, last week.

Mayor and Mrs. Leach, who have been spending some time in this vicinity, have returned to their home in Wahpeton, N. D.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Chaffee have moved to J. B. Dow's farm and Joe Fisher and family have moved into his father's house in the village.

The people of Albany village are not walking in darkness now as they have electric lights, which were turned on for the first time Friday evening.

On Thursday evening the ladies will serve a bean supper from 6 o'clock until all are served. At 8 o'clock Rev. Joseph Vasey from Evansville will give a lecture on some of his experiences in the Near East.

On the evening of September 22, Maple Valley Grange observed neighbor's night with about 40 Grangers from Newport present. The entertainment put on by the Newport people was very good, consisting of songs, readings, recitations and tableaux. Program closed with "an old time husking bee." A chicken-pie supper was served in the church vestry, where over 100 people partook of the good things provided by the Albany ladies. After supper a social hour was much enjoyed by all. Come again, Newport, we like your company.

METHODIST CHURCH NOTES

Rev. Percy Newton, Pastor.
Sunday Services

Afternoon at 2 o'clock.
Sunday school at 3 o'clock.
Evening service 7 o'clock.

On Thursday, October 5, a bean supper will be served in the church vestry from 6 to 8 o'clock. Adults 20 cents, children 10 cents.

At 8 o'clock Rev. J. Vasey will lecture, his subject being, "My Experiences in the Near East." A collection will be taken for the Renovation school.

SOUTH ALBANY

Miss Amy Urie left on Monday for Boston, where she has employment.

Henry Garner of Orleans was in town a few days last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Armour Clark of Melrose, Mass., visited at C. E. Anderson's Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. George Powers recently visited Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Brown of Orleans.

Mrs. Ellen Esdon and family of Greensboro were visitors at Frank Graham's one day last week.

Word has been received from Manchester, N. H., of the serious illness of Mrs. Abbie N. Whipple with pneumonia.

Mr. and Mrs. Armour Clark, who have been visitors at the home of Alex Wyllie, motored to their home in Melrose Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Merrill and Mr. and Mrs. Gochie of Laconia, N. H., have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. O. M. Rowell the past week.

SOUTH ALBANY CHURCH NOTES
Rev. Percy Newton, Pastor
Sunday Services

Morning at 10.30.
The Sunday school meets at the close of the service.

An invitation is given to all members of the community to attend these services.

GLOVER

Ava Bean is visiting friends in Manchester, N. H.

Schools at the Center are closed on account of scarlet fever.

Marian Clark is ill with scarlet fever at her home on Clark hill.

The Hugh Carr farm near Shadow lake has been sold to Mr. Dewing.

The county Holstein association met at the farm of Carl Bean last Thursday.

A free oyster supper was given by the Glover Driving club Saturday night.

George Anderson and Frank Dunn have given their houses a coat of paint.

E. L. Paddleford has returned home from a visit to relatives in Springfield, Mass.

The Farm Bureau was entertained Monday evening by Mr. and Mrs. Tracy Cook.

There will be an old-fashioned dance at Institute hall Friday evening, October 6.

Frank Gray has bought the grain business of W. E. Sherburne and will carry it on.

Joe Montminy has moved from the Niles house to the lower tenement in Mrs. Eva Ford's house.

At the last meeting of Glover Grange the names of several new members were voted on.

Howard Bickford will substitute on the R. F. D. route as George Drew has a leave of absence for the winter.

At the next regular meeting of Glover Grange there will be an interesting program. All are urged to attend.

A large number of Daughters of Liberty from Sheffield gave Mrs. Joe Montminy a surprise visit last Friday afternoon.

Edith Alexander and Mildred Miles were home from Montpelier over the week-end, and Clyde Walcott and Floyd Taylor are home from N. Y. M.

E. L. Alexander has returned from the hospital at Orleans, where he underwent an operation for appendicitis. He is fast regaining his strength.

Norman Aldrich of Marblehead, Mass., visited his brother, Guy Aldrich, last week and the Aldrich family to the number of 35 took dinner together at Willoughby lake Sunday.

Leslie Clark had a narrow escape from death last week. He was leading a bull which tossed Mr. Clark over his head in the air. He struck on his head but fortunately he did not hit any of the stones near the place and escaped with a severe shaking up.

GLOVER COMMUNITY CHURCH
Rev. John Kimball, Pastor
Morning worship 11 a. m.
Sunday school 12 m.
Praise service at 7.30 p. m.

Edith Alexander and Mrs. Marjorie Whitcomb were elected delegates to the state Sunday school convention in Montpelier this week.

Mothers of babies under two years old are reminded that there will be a better baby contest October 12, in connection with the church fair. Don't forget that its success depends on your baby. Further particulars will be given next week.

The church fair to be held October 12th, will be an all-day affair, the sale beginning at 9 o'clock and lunch will be served at noon.

The town library board met at the library last week and selected a list of new books to be purchased. It was also voted to place a set of books in each school in town as an aid toward standardizing the schools and to spread the work of the library over the whole town. Traveling libraries have been secured from the state department to aid in this school work.

U. S. Custom Officer Phelix Pratt, was some surprised man Friday when in making his round of inspection on the noon train he found a well dressed and fine appearing lady at all appearances hooked up with the list of booze smugglers as it is reported 14 quarts were found in her possession. She was brought before Commissioner Cleary and bail fixed for her appearance before the Federal Grand Jury. Friends from town wired the release of bail Monday and she was released from jail.

WEST GLOVER

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Buchanan are visiting at M. H. Lyman's.

Walter King is doing chores for Wm. Cameron while they are away.

Miss Hester Webster was home over the week-end from her school in Montpelier.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Copland from West Burke spent Sunday at L. H. Scott's.

Miss Jennie Wilkinson spent several days with her sister in Morrisville recently.

Miss Eunice Stevens was home from her school at Westmore over the week-end.

Guy Garvin and son, Charles, of St. Johnsbury spent Sunday at Lyman Barber's.

Mr. and Mrs. George Nutting have moved into their new home known as the Stiles place.

Clyde Barber is doing carpenter work for Carl Dwinell on the Orleans high school building.

Arlene Stevens, who has been sick with Bright's disease, is some improved at this writing.

Rosa Wright, who has been harvesting in the Canadian Northwest, returned home last week.

The West Glover school had a corn and marshmallow roast on Lone Tree hill last Tuesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. F. T. Niles spent Saturday and Sunday visiting relatives in Groveton, N. H.

Mrs. Harry Coolbeth and baby returned from the Orleans hospital recently, much improved in health.

Earl Barber of Somerville, Mass., was called home recently because of the illness of his mother, Mrs. Lyman Barber.

Dr. S. T. Lull applied a federal test to the herd of E. G. Lamorey, and no reactors were found. He has 24 head of cattle.

The postoffice has been moved from the Webster tenement to the Stiles place which was recently purchased by George Nutting.

Mrs. Henry Hawkins and daughter, Marjorie, were called to Providence, R. I., Wednesday because of the illness of Mrs. Hawkins' father.

Ellery Lyndes has finished his study at Thompson's office at Barton and has gone to St. Johnsbury to work in the Caledonian office.

Mrs. Maurice Leland and two children have returned to their home in West Natick, after spending a few weeks visiting relatives here.

The millinery demonstration will be given by Miss Goddard, the home demonstration agent, Friday of this week. Everyone is invited to attend and should bring material for remodelling hats.

The ladies of the Farm Bureau will meet at the hall Wednesday. Miss Potter and Miss Goddard will give a home millinery demonstration. Ladies furnish dinner.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Cameron and son, Murray, of this place, and Mr. and Mrs. George Urie of Barton Albany, N. Y., to visit Miss Phyllis Urie.

The many friends of Mrs. Lyman Barber were saddened to learn of her death Monday evening. The funeral services will be held Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock. An extended account will be given next week.

Dr. Farmer of St. Johnsbury was called in consultation with Dr. Prime Monday for Mrs. Lyman Barber, who remains quite low at this writing. Nurse Batchelder of Barton is caring for Mrs. Barber.

GREENSBORO BEND

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Dick Thompson Sunday, September 24th.

E. L. Adams is spending a few days with relatives in Nashua, N. H.

Dr. W. T. Slayton of Morrisville visited the school here the first of the week.

Joe Cyr is building a piece of state road up the river near the four corners.

Mrs. Laura McCuen of St. Johnsbury has been spending a few days with friends here.

Mrs. Jennie Pope of St. Johnsbury was an over Sunday guest at the home of G. R. Davies.

Rev. and Mrs. White of Shawbridge, P. Q., were recent visitors of Rev. and Mrs. Webster.

Quite a number from here attended the funeral of Mrs. May Jardine at R. A. Ritchie's Friday.

Mrs. Lizzie Davies has returned to her home for a few weeks, after an absence of nearly a year on account of ill health.

GREENSBORO BEND
A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Dick Thompson Sunday, September 24th.

E. L. Adams is spending a few days with relatives in Nashua, N. H.

Dr. W. T. Slayton of Morrisville visited the school here the first of the week.

Joe Cyr is building a piece of state road up the river near the four corners.

Mrs. Laura McCuen of St. Johnsbury has been spending a few days with friends here.

Mrs. Jennie Pope of St. Johnsbury was an over Sunday guest at the home of G. R. Davies.

Rev. and Mrs. White of Shawbridge, P. Q., were recent visitors of Rev. and Mrs. Webster.

Quite a number from here attended the funeral of Mrs. May Jardine at R. A. Ritchie's Friday.

Mrs. Lizzie Davies has returned to her home for a few weeks, after an absence of nearly a year on account of ill health.

GREENSBORO BEND
A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Dick Thompson Sunday, September 24th.

E. L. Adams is spending a few days with relatives in Nashua, N. H.

Dr. W. T. Slayton of Morrisville visited the school here the first of the week.

Joe Cyr is building a piece of state road up the river near the four corners.

Mrs. Laura McCuen of St. Johnsbury has been spending a few days with friends here.

Mrs. Jennie Pope of St. Johnsbury was an over Sunday guest at the home of G. R. Davies.

Rev. and Mrs. White of Shawbridge, P. Q., were recent visitors of Rev. and Mrs. Webster.

Quite a number from here attended the funeral of Mrs. May Jardine at R. A. Ritchie's Friday.

Mrs. Lizzie Davies has returned to her home for a few weeks, after an absence of nearly a year on account of ill health.

GREENSBORO BEND
A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Dick Thompson Sunday, September 24th.

E. L. Adams is spending a few days with relatives in Nashua, N. H.

Dr. W. T. Slayton of Morrisville visited the school here the first of the week.

Joe Cyr is building a piece of state road up the river near the four corners.

Mrs. Laura McCuen of St. Johnsbury has been spending a few days with friends here.

Mrs. Jennie Pope of St. Johnsbury was an over Sunday guest at the home of G. R. Davies.

Rev. and Mrs. White of Shawbridge, P. Q., were recent visitors of Rev. and Mrs. Webster.

Excellent Quality Toilet Soap

Almond Cocoa and Buttermilk

Large 7-oz. cakes 3 for 25c

Palmolive Co's Assortment Rose, Buttermilk, Glycerin, Elderflower, 5c per cake.
A large package of Washing Powder 23c

KRAFT CHEESE IN AIR-TIGHT TINS

Plain Kraft, Pimento, Chilli, Rarebit, Roquefort, Comenbert, Swiss, Limburger

15c to 50c per tin

Calarab Figs 40c per lb.
Extra quality Chocolate Assortment—40 flavors 39c lb.
Garlic 50c per lb.
Fruit Salad 50c per can
Premier's Salad Dressing 15c and 37c
Howard's Salad Dressing 35c
Blue Ribbon Salad Dressing 35c
Golden Crisp Potato Chips 10c per bag
A fine-flavored moist Peanut Butter 20c lb.
Also in 2 1/2 and 5-lb. pails at 60c and $1.00